For every correct answer, one mark will be awarded, however for every wrong answer, 0.25 marks shall be deducted.. Those candidates who have obtained at least 33% of total marks in the online examination shall be considered as passed. In case of SC/ST candidates, a minimum of 28% shall be considered as passed.
- c. In case of more than one candidate securing same total marks in examination, the candidate older in age will be placed higher in merit. In case the total marks and date of birth is also same, the candidate possessing higher educational qualification would be considered higher in merit. In case of a tie in date of birth as well as the highest educational qualification, the candidates securing higher percentage of marks in the qualifying examination would be considered higher in merit. In case all the above parameters result in a tie, a candidate having passed his qualifying examination earlier would be considered senior in the merit list.

8. Selection Process and Appointments:-

Appointment shall be made on the basis of a candidate's merit in examination and the preferences indicated by him/her subject to the availability of the posts belonging to the category of the candidate in that particular bank. For example, if an SC candidate has expressed his first preference for a particular Banks and no SC category post is available in that particular bank, then the next preference expressed by him will be considered. Candidates should express their preferences for all the banks for the posts of Manager as well as Banking Assistant. Preferences for the post of Steno should be given as per the available posts in different Banks. Preferences for the post of Computer Programmer should be given as per the available posts in different Banks. The post of Senior Manager is available only in the Rajasthan State Co-operative Bank. Banks shall be allocated to the candidates on the basis of their merit in the examination result and the preference indicated by them in the application form.

Note:-

- a. The Rajasthan State Co-operative Bank(Apex Bank), Jaipur and various District Central Co-operative Banks are all independent co-operative bodies and the appointment letters to the finally selected candidates will be issued by the respective Bank, for which the candidate has been selected.
- b. The Board is conducting common examination for recruitment to each of the various categories of posts advertised on behalf of the Apex Cooperative Bank and various Central Cooperative Banks and after issuing common merit lists for each of the posts on the basis of such examination, recommendations for appointment of candidate in an institution shall be made on the basis of his/her ranking in the merit as well as the preference indicated by him/her.
- c. If a woman candidate secures merit in the general category and there is no seat reserved for woman candidates in the institution of her preference, she will be allotted a post against the mixed vacancies (male+female) of the general category. Where the 30 percent quota reserved for women is fulfilled, a woman candidate securing merit shall be given appointment in excess of the 30 percent quota, meaning thereby that no vacancy of a particular category shall remain unfilled for want of a seat reserved for women, if a woman candidate of that category is available in the merit. Reason having that there is no reservation for male candidates.
- d. Each candidate applying for a particular post will be required to give preference for the institution of his/her choice while filling up the application form. These preferences, once given, shall be final and irreversible. A candidate can give preferences for more than one institution (Apex Bank / any of the CCBs).
- e. Candidates should keep in mind that, after the examination, the Board shall recommend a candidate for appointment on a post in one institution only and such recommendation will be on the basis of the candidate's merit and availability of posts belonging to his/her category in the banks/institution of his/her preference.
- f. The selection list prepared and recommended by the Board shall be made available to the Bank concerned on the basis of which, the Bank shall take up the process of appointment.
- g. The candidates recommended for appointment shall be given appointment on a fixed remuneration for the initial two years. The remuneration shall be as fixed by the Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Rajasthan from time to time. However, contribution to the EPF shall be deducted as per the rules. No extra allowances and perquisites shall be payable to the selected candidate other than the fixed remuneration.

- h. Every newly appointed personnel shall be on probation for two years. Full pay as per the prevailing pay grades shall be paid only after the satisfactory completion of the probation period. The Bank may extend the probation period of a personnel up to a period of one year, if his/her work is not found satisfactory. Confirmation of the appointed personnel shall be done after successful completion of probation period provided that the personnel shall not be confirmed unless the personnel passes the computer efficiency test.
- i. The selected candidates will be required to pass a computer efficiency test within a period of two years from the date of appointment. The computer efficiency test shall be conducted by an agency approved by the Registrar, Cooperative Society, Rajasthan.
- j. Before joining, as probationers, the selected candidates have to fulfill all the necessary formalities fixed by the Bank and shall execute a two years' service bond of prescribed value with the concerned Bank as per the guidelines of the Cooperative Department.
- k. Before joining the selected candidates shall complete the necessary formalities decided by the Bank which include the candidate's medical test, police verification, personal guarantee and financial fidelity as decided by the Bank.
- l. The list of Banks along with their codes is at Annexure- 3

9. Pay and Emoluments- Post wise pay scales and admissible emoluments/perquisites are available at annexure 2

11. Age Limit:

Candidate should have a minimum age of 18 years but less than 40 years as on 31.07.2019

Relaxation in the upper age limit shall be given to the following:-

- i) Age relaxation for disabled category shall be given to a candidate having a disability approved at the competent level, for which he/she will have to produce a Disability Certificate issued by a Medical Board duly constituted by the Government. This certificate should have been issued on the date of application or before the last date of registration of online application.
- ii) Candidates seeking age relaxation are required to submit copies of necessary certificate(s) at the time of appointment. No change in the category of any candidate is possible after registration of online applications.
 - a) In case of male candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes / Backward Classes of Rajasthan, a relaxation of 5 years will be given in the upper age limit;
 - b) In case of general category EWS woman candidates, a relaxation of 5 years will be given in the upper age limit; and

- c) In case of woman candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes / Scheduled Tribes / Backward Classes / More Backward Classes of Rajasthan, a relaxation of 10 years will be given in the upper age limit.
1. Officers relieved from the Emergency Commission and the Short Service Commission shall be deemed to be in the age limit after they get relieved from the army, even if they have crossed the upper age limit at the time of appearing before the department, provided they were eligible in respect of age limit at the time of their induction in the army. However the upper age limit shall not be relaxed beyond 50 years of age for such candidates.
 2. There shall be no upper age limit for widow and divorcee candidates.
 3. The upper age limit for the reservationist defense personnel and ex-army personnel kept in the reservationists' list shall be 50 years. According to the Rajasthan Civil Services (Absorption of Ex-Servicemen) Rules, 1988, such candidate should not have attained 50 years of age for the posts reserved for Ex-Servicemen, but in case of a candidate having been conferred Military Cross / Veer Chakra or other gallantry awards, the upper age limit shall be relaxable upto three years.

Explanation: A widow candidate shall be required to produce death certificate of her husband issued by a competent authority and in the case of a divorcee, she will be required to produce the termination of marriage certificate (decree passed by a competent court).

Note: The provisions regarding relaxation in the upper age limit as mentioned in paras 2 to 5 are non- accumulative, meaning thereby that a candidate will be given the benefit of relaxation in the maximum age limit only under any one of the above mentioned provisions. Cumulative benefit of more than one provision shall not be admissible.

12. Provisions regarding reservations-

- a. The vacancies to be filled up in the Rajasthan State Cooperative Bank Ltd. and Central Cooperative Banks will have reservation for SC/ST/BC/MBC/TSP/Saharia/Women (including widow and divorcee women)/Ex-servicemen/disabled/Economically Weaker Sections in accordance with the reservation provisions applicable for recruitment of personnel in the State Government.

Saharia (Baran), TSP category candidates with in the bonafide domicile Scheduled Areas will be entitled for reservation as per the govt. rules applicable in the area concerned.

Candidates belonging to BC category but coming in creamy layer are not entitled for reservation available to BC candidates. Therefore, such candidates will be considered in the general category. Accordingly candidates belonging to creamy layer of BC should apply as general candidates. SC/ST/BC/MBC/Woman candidates belonging to states other than Rajasthan should apply as general category candidates.

If a candidate belonging to BC category of a state other than Rajasthan is also categorised as BC in Rajasthan, he will be considered in the BC category of Rajasthan.

- b. (i) Posts reserved for SC/ST remaining vacant for want of eligible and suitable candidates of these categories may be filled up by general category candidates after keeping the posts vacant for three years but the backlog for these categories will continue.
- (ii) Posts reserved for BC/disabled (total 4%, 1% for each) candidates will be filled up through regular process in accordance with the rules, if eligible and suitable candidates belonging to these categories are not available.
- c. There shall be a categorywise horizontal reservation for woman candidates. Reservation for woman candidates shall be adjusted against the relevant category to which she belongs. If a woman candidate secures merit in the general category and there is no seat reserved for women in general category in the Bank/Institution of her preference, she will be allocated in the general category (mixed) reason being that there is no reservation for the male candidates. Remaining 70% vacancies are open for both , male & female of the same category.

Clarification

If eligible and suitable woman candidates are not available for a post reserved for women in a category (General/SC/ST/TSP/Saharia/BC/MBC/EWS), the post shall be filled with a male candidate of the same category. A married woman belonging to BC shall be required to produce the latest non-creamy layer BC certificate in the name of her father on the basis of his residence and income. A certificate issued in the name of her husband and his income shall not be entertained.

- d. The advertised posts have horizontal reservation for Ex-servicemen, meaning thereby that an Ex-serviceman candidate shall be accommodated in the same category (SC/ST/TSP/Saharia/BC/MBC/General/EWS) to which he/she belongs. In case eligible and suitable candidates are not available for such a reserved post, the post shall be filled up by regular recruitment process as per the rules and such vacancy shall be carried forward for the following one year.
- e. The applicant should have been retired before the last date fixed for submitting applications, if he/she applies for a post reserved for Ex-serviceman. Dependents of Ex-servicemen shall not be eligible for the posts reserved for Ex-servicemen.

13. Disqualifications for appointment–

- (a) The candidate having more than one living spouse shall not be eligible for appointment in service save where the Government, after satisfying itself that there are special grounds for doing so, exempts him/her from enforcement of this rule.
- (b) The candidate, who has married to a person who is already having a living lawful spouse, shall not be eligible for appointment in service save where the Government, after satisfying itself that there are special grounds for doing so, exempts him/her from enforcement of this rule.
- (c) No married candidate shall be eligible for appointment in service if he has accepted dowry at the time of his marriage.

Explanation: For the purpose of this rule, 'dowry' has the same meaning as given in the Prohibition of Dowry Act, 1961 (Central Act No. 28 of 1961).

- (d) No candidate having more than two children on or after 01.06.2002 shall be eligible for recruitment in service:

Provided that-

- (I) The person having more than two children, who was not disqualified on June 1, 2002, shall not be considered disqualified for recruitment unless there is an increase in the number of offsprings he/she had on June 1, 2002;
- (II) Where a candidate has only one offspring from his/her earlier delivery but the number of offsprings born out of a subsequent delivery are more than one, the number of offsprings born from such subsequent delivery shall be considered as a single entity for the purpose of calculating the number of offspring under this sub-rule;
- (III) The disabled offspring of a candidate from one of his/her earlier delivery shall not be counted for the purpose of calculating the number of his/her offsprings under this sub-rule;
- (IV) The candidate who has lawfully remarried and has offspring(s) from a single delivery from such remarriage shall not be considered disqualified under this sub-rule unless he/she had been disqualified for appointment before such remarriage;
- (V) If a candidate has adopted a destitute boy / girl child from a government orphanage following the necessary legal requirements, as a result of which the number of children he/she had on 01.06.2002 has increased above two, such adopted child shall not be counted while calculating his/her number of offsprings for the purpose of this sub-rule.
- (VI) This sub-rule shall not be applicable to the appointment of a widow of a deceased employee of the Apex Bank and any of the CCBs of the state, if applied as the dependent under the rules.

14. Certificates -

1. Caste certificates should be in the prescribed format issued by a competent authority.

2. Married woman candidate belonging to SC / ST / TSP / Saharia group must also submit the certificate issued in the name of her father, otherwise she will not get the benefit under this category. The certificate issued in the husband's name is not recognized.
3. The caste certificate produced by a Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe/TSP/Saharia candidate should have been issued by a competent authority of Rajasthan before the last date fixed for submission of application, otherwise the applicant shall not be eligible for availing category specific benefits.
4. The candidate belonging to BC of the State of Rajasthan will be required to furnish a relevant certificate regarding income of his/her father/mother in the prescribed format issued by a competent officer. That means the certificate should be issued in the period of last 6 months prior to the last date fixed for submission of applications clearly specifying the creamy layer/ non-creamy layer category. A married woman candidate of Backward Classes / More Backward Classes will have to submit the certificate issued on the basis of income of her father / mother. The certificate issued on the basis of husband's name and income will not be entertained.

Note: After declaration of examination result, candidates will be required to produce all the original certificates for verification of documents regarding his/her eligibility.

15. Identity Verification

16. (i) Guidelines for Persons With Benchmark Disabilities using a Scribe (Discuss with IBPS)

The visually impaired candidates and candidates whose writing speed is adversely affected permanently for any reason can use their own scribe at their cost during the online examination. In all such cases where a scribe is used, the following rules will apply:

- The candidate who has not indicated his disability while applying and has not requested for a scribe or has not produced a suitable medical certificate regarding his/her disability will not be allowed the facility of a Scribe in the Examination.
- The candidate will have to arrange his / her own scribe at his/her own cost.
- The scribe may be from any academic stream, but the academic qualification of scribe must be lower than the prescribed minimum educational qualification for the post applied.
- Both, the candidate as well as scribe will have to give a suitable undertaking confirming that the scribe fulfills all the stipulated eligibility criteria for a scribe mentioned above. Further, in case it later transpires that he/she did not fulfill any laid down eligibility criteria or suppressed material facts, the candidature of the applicant will stand cancelled.
- Those candidates who use a scribe shall be eligible for compensatory time of 20 minutes or otherwise advised for every hour of the examination.
- The scribe arranged by the candidate should not be a candidate for the online examination. If violation of the above is detected at any stage of the process, candidature of both, the candidate and the scribe, will be cancelled. Candidates eligible for and who wish to use the services of a scribe in the examination should invariably carefully indicate the same in the online application form. Any subsequent request may not be favorably entertained.
- Only candidates registered for compensatory time will be allowed such concessions. Since compensatory time given to candidates shall be system based, it shall not be possible for the test conducting agency to allow such time if he / she is not registered for the same. Candidates not registered for compensatory time shall not be allowed such concessions.

- (ii) Guidelines for candidates with locomotor disability and cerebral palsy:
A Compensatory time of twenty minutes per hour or otherwise advised shall be permitted for the candidates with locomotor disability and cerebral palsy where dominant (writing) extremity is affected to the extent of slowing the performance of function (minimum of 40% impairment).

(iii) Guidelines for Visually Impaired candidates:

- Visually Impaired candidates (who suffer from not less than 40% of disability) may opt to view the contents of the test in magnified font and all such candidates will be eligible for compensatory time of 20 minutes for every hour or otherwise advised of examination.
- The facility of viewing the contents of the test in magnifying font will not be available to Visually Impaired candidates who use the services of a scribe for the examination.
